

Special schools and centers

The Pittsburgh district serves students with special needs through supports and services within schools and at special education centers. One charter school within the city, Hill House Passport Academy, serves a special population of students—those under 21 who haven't been able to graduate on time. Below are contact information and basic demographical information about these schools and centers. Information for PPS schools is for the 2016-17 school year, except for number of teachers, which is for 2015-16. Enrollment information for Hill House Passport Academy is for the 2015-16 school year.
